

Match the nicknames to the cities

- |              |                            |
|--------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Chicago   | a. Pink City               |
| 2. New York  | b. Windy City              |
| 3. Jaipur    | c. Silicon Valley of India |
| 4. Bangalore | d. Pearl of the Danube     |
| 5. Paris     | e. Big Apple               |
| 6. Beijing   | f. Forbidden City          |
| 7. Budapest  | g. City of Love            |

No Clue.

- 1 Carolyn Davidson, a graphic designer, is best known for designing 'swoosh', the logo of a famous company. Which one?
- 2 Which ice cream gets its name from the Italian phrase for "all fruits"?
- 3 Which toy/puzzle, developed by a professor of architecture Erno, has around 43 quintillion possible solutions?
- 4 Which is the only country to have an image of an actual building on it? (Clue: The building is that of Angkor Vat)
- 5 In 2010, the environment ministry declared this animal to be the 'National Heritage Animal' in order to increase protection for it. Which animal?

Identify these structures and the countries they are in.

SNAP IT

The Puzzler

A race was organized. Two people were participating in the race. They were each told to get their horses to the race. The winner would be the person whose horse finished LAST in the race. Both didn't know what to do. How can this be done?

Your Choice

1 If you were to draw a rainbow, which colour would be in the middle?

- a. Blue
- b. Green
- c. Yellow

2 What is the name of these cards, put inside a mobile phone?

- a. SIM Cards
- b. Mobile Cards
- c. Data cards

3 What is the name of this snack item?

- a. Pav Bhaji
- b. Sev Bhaji
- c. Vada Pav

4 With reference to size of clothes, what does XL stand for ?

- a. Extra Large
- b. Excess Length
- c. Extra Length

The Grid

Given above is the keypad of a regular phone. If you were to press the following numbers in order, what is the 'word' formed out of the sequence? Note: Each number could stand for any of the letters mentioned against it.

932584

ANSWERS

Match: 1b, 2e, 3a, 4c, 5g, 6f, 7d

No Clue: 1 Nike 2 Tutti-Frutti 3 Rubik's Cube 4 Cambodia 5 The Indian Elephant

Snap IT: Sphinx (Egypt), Pentagon (USA), Burj Al Arab (Dubai. UAE), White House (USA)

Puzzler: They exchange horses and then run a regular race. So, if a person wins, it means that 'his' horse, which is with the other person has lost the race!

Your Choice: 1b, 2a, 3c, 4a

Grid: WEALTH